

An Inexhaustive List of Wildlife Identification Resources for Whitman County

General

iNaturalist: Observations from Whitman County

Washington NatureMapping Program

Palouse Prairie Foundation: Species Information

Mammals

Palouse Prairie Foundation: Historically Observed Mammals

Birds

Palouse Prairie Foundation: Historically Observed Birds

Washington Audubon: Palouse to Pines Loop Booklet

Palouse Audubon Society

Reptiles & Amphibians

UW Burke Museum: Amphibians & Reptiles of Washington

Washington State Magazine, “The Legacy Lives On”: “Specifically, the rolling Palouse farmland is home to eight species: long-toed salamanders, Pacific chorus frogs, Columbia spotted frogs, tiger salamanders, western toads, Great Basin spadefoot toads, and two that were introduced—rough-skinned newts and bullfrogs.”

Insects

Eastern Washington Insects

Xerces Society

WSU Entomology Department

Fungi

Eastern Washington Guide to Mushrooms

iNaturalist: Lichens and Fungi of Eastern Washington State

Grasses/Forbs & Trees/Shrubs

USDA PLANTS Database

NRCS: Identification of Grasses for Eastern Oregon and Washington

Native Plants in Eastern Washington

Washington Native Plant Society: Whitman County Native Plant List

Native Shrubs of Eastern Washington

Washington State Noxious Weed Control Board: Suggested Alternatives for Non-Native
Landscaping

Native Plant List for Idaho, Eastern Oregon, & Eastern Washington

Mosses/Lichen

Oregon State University: Lichenland

UW Burke Herbarium: Ferns & Lycophytes of Washington